

“Without any doubt a lot of research has gone into it. His literary works on, “A Household of Bliss” have shed light on different aspects of our existence. It’s a Herculean quantum leap forward for all to read in the 21st Century.”

Laban T. M'bololo, Esq., Entrepreneur and Author of “INFLUENCE: The Secret of Selling”, “As A man Saveth (Heal Your World)” and “30 Days Entrepreneur Series”

“We all truly need homes, I only came to realize this upon comprehending the need to have a sense of belonging. I came to realize only after reading this book that we are indebted to our homes and need to cherish every moment we share with our families.”

Dr. Nathan, Graduated in aircraft engineering from Northrop University, Los Angeles California USA. An entrepreneur and consultant on occupational safety and health, trainer and a motivational speaker.

We are in the world of misconceptions, a world in need of solutions, a world filled with dilemmas which needs more than a quick fix, but can microwave solutions be an answer to our problems and if so then who is there to guide us? Who is there to understand our pain and desperation? Look around and see the number of homes falling apart. How many of us have houses, but feel the need to turn them into homes? Or the need to not only understand, but to also satisfy our spouse. A Household Of Bliss, a book that tackles the most intense subject of all time, a book that feels the need to repair the many broken homes and desperate individuals seeking to make amends, a book that doesn't only give you solutions to your troubles but feels the need to restore the entire atmosphere to create bliss within our existence.

DR. M. BAH AidAR, an inspiring author who sees the need to not only motivate but provide pragmatic solutions to the existing problems that trouble your life. Out of his curiosity, a contemporary writer emerged with a distinctive style of writing that makes the reader get glued onto the pages and relate to the issue at hand. Through his research on the philosophy of life and psychological effects impacting on the human race, it brought about the need to cover over 2,000 books and has dealt with almost 10,000 personal and family issues. This astounding experience birthed the idea of penning down 3 of the most exclusive books, ‘The Hidden Self,’ ‘The Point of Deflection,’ and ‘A Household of Bliss,’ Which are in widespread distribution in retail outlets near you and on online bookstores.”
